Dear Ms Coupe

REDBANK COPPER LIMITED – VOLUNTARY SUSPENSION EXTENSION REQUEST

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 17.2, the Directors of Redbank Copper Limited ('the Company' or 'Redbank', ASX Code: RCP) hereby request an extension of the voluntary suspension of the Company's securities effective from the commencement of trading on Friday, 11 September 2020.

Further to the Company's request for an extension to the voluntary suspension on Thursday, 10 September 2020, at 9am WST on Thursday 10 September 2020, the ASX confirmed that it would advise the Company, later in the day, on whether the answers provided to the 16 additional items of further information provided by the Company to ASX on Tuesday, 8 September 2020 provided enough evidence to satisfy the ASX that the Company could lift the voluntary suspension.

The Company is yet to hear from the ASX.

Therefore, Redbank requests that the voluntary suspension remain in place until the release of an announcement regarding reinstatement to quotation, which it expects to make by Monday, 14 September 2020.

The Company is not aware of any reason why the extension of the voluntary suspension should not be granted. The Company is not aware of any other information necessary to inform the market about the extension of the voluntary suspension.

This request has been authorised and approved for issue by the RCP Executive Chairman.

Yours faithfully

Michael Hannington
Executive Chairman
